DAMAGES.
The farmer is a cunning man,
For always in the fall, He seeks out sick and aged stock And quickly buys it all.
Old cows and horses, near the grave,
And turns them on his land, Where none can keep from being shot When hunting time's at hand.
—Kansas Independent.

Golden Glory Lump Starch 2 pounds for 5c., at H. E. Langdon & Co.
For fine chocolate candies and fruit tablets call at Ray's Postoffice Drugstore.

If you have sore throat, soreness across the back or side, or your lungs feel sore or tender, or you are threatened with diphtheria or pneumonia, apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally, and use Cousseau's Honey of Tar J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The Rev. J. M. Yonan, who went from Louisville with his family to do mission work in his native land, Persia, left his little boy in New York with grandparents. The son died just after the father sailed.

Ladies, clean your kid gloves with LaBelle Glove Cleaner, for sale only by D. Hunt & Son, headquarters for Kid Gloves and sole agents for the famous one dollar Federa Glove, all the leading shades. Gloves guaranteed from $1 upward.

For burns, cuts, bruises, lacerations, or injuries of any description, Ballard's Snow Liniment is a sovereign remedy. It never fails to do good, and so promptly that its wonderful curative properties frequently create surprise.
Price 25 cts. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Mr. L. P. Frank, one of the most genteel and popular employees of the L. and N., was in the city yesterday, and paid THE LEDGER a visit. He is now on the run between Lexington and Cincinnati, and changed off yesterday in order that he could come to Maysville and shake hands with his 10,000 friends here.

COLEMAN IS INDICTED!

The Brutal Murderer of Mrs.
Lashbrooke Takes Another Step Hellward.

SOME GROWSOME WITNESSES.

The Grand Jury now in session is composed of—

John H. Hall, Foreman;
Ben Hook,
John L. Caldwell,
Paul Best,
Fred Ring,
John Bacon,
William Hallard,
Fox Guilfoyle.

After being earnestly charged by Judge Harbeson yesterday, the Jury retired and began its deliberations.

The chief business of the day was an investigation into the murder of Mrs. James Lashbrooke by the Negro Dick Coleman.

The blood-stained club and ax, with mats of the dead woman's hair still sticking to them, the razor and the bloody shirt of the mur-derer, were among the growsome but silent yet eloquent witnesses to the awful deed.

At the conclusion of the examination the Grand Jury found an indictment against the self-confessed villain, and it will be reported to the Court today, when a date will be fixed for the trial.

Infant mortality is something frightful.
Nearly one-quarter die before they reach one year, one-third before they are five, and one half before they are fifteen! The timely use of White's Cream Vermifuge would save a majority of these precious lives. Price 25 cts.

for Pittsburgh.

D. K. Cooper has been appointed Postmaster at Abigail, Robertson county.

Sixty juvenile convicts from Frankfort and Edwinstown will be removed to the Reform School at Lexington this week.

The Society of the Kentucky Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet in Richmond Thursday and Friday of this week.

Governor Bradley has called a special election in the Seventh Congressional District for December 18th, to elect a successor to the late Congressman Evan E. Settle.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the second week of November were $955,285.
Last year the earnings for the same period were $498,995, showing an increase this year of $456,290.

The State Railroad Commission has completed the annual assessment of the railroad property of the state. The Board will meet in Louisville on Tuesday next to complete the work of the year.

The interesting series of meetings continue at the Christian Church, Rev. E. L. Powell nightly preaching to large and attentive congregations. Beginning today there will be two services, one at 10:30 a. m. and one at 7 p. m. The public invited.

Mr. R. D. Garrett of Princeton, National Bank Examiner for Kentucky, is in the city making an examination of the Banks.

Mr. Hugh Crawford, aged 21, of Tuckahoe, and Miss Katie Fitzgibbons, aged 22, of Morans-burg, marry today at Mayslick, the Rev.
Father John Hickey officiating.

Used By British Soldiers in Africa.

Captain C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Gallahe. Under date of November 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial."
For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

A BIG INDIGNATION MEETING.

Courthouse Crowded With Citizens of the County to Protest Against Political Robbers.

SPIRITED SPEECHES AND RINGING RESOLUTIONS

In response to posters announcing an indignation mass meeting to protest against the manner in which the returns from the late election have been handled, the Courthouse yesterday afternoon was crowded with citizens eager to show that Goebellian methods are not meeting with much favor in these parts.

There was some confusion over the hour appointed for the meeting, being called first for 7 o'clock, but owing to the throngs of country people in the city it was held in the afternoon.
There were present a number of our most substantial business men, the larger proportion of the audience being, however, men from the country.

At 2 o'clock Hon. A. M. J. Cochran called the meeting to order, stating the reason for thus bringing the people together.
During his remarks Mr. Cochran read the following telegram from Kentucky's Democratic United States Senator:

LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 26th.
A. M. J. Cochran: Letter received. Regret inability to be in Maysville today. The votes must be counted as they were polled. Honest returns must be made and the true result certified.
The people will tolerate nothing less.
WILLIAM LINDSAY.

At the close of Mr. Cochran's talk calls for nominations for officers were made.

Mr. Robert M. Marshall of Sardis was chosen Chairman and Mr. Thomas A. Davis Secretary.

Upon assuming the chair Mr. Marshall addressed the meeting, saying that although having withdrawn from active politics and hoping never again to be called to preside over a political meeting, he did not consider this a political meeting, and he would ever be found doing his duty and acting his part for justice to his fellow citizens. He referred to the law passed by the last Legislature through the efforts of one who now claims to be Governor of the state, and asked if the people would surrender the liberty so gloriously won to the intrigues of this one man. He did not think it right for Kentuckians to enter no protest to the wrongs already perpetrated and not fight for the freedom given the people by their ancestors. Now was the time for all to stand together and work for the state's good.

Mr. Marshall was cheered during his address, showing that his hearers were in sympathy with his views.

A committee of five to draft resolutions was appointed by the Chairman as follows: W. H.
Wadsworth, J. B. Holton, Dr. Thomas E. Pickett, Henry Ort and Squire J. H. Grigsby.

Mr. Wadsworth, being a member of the Mason County Board of Election Commissioners, declined to act as a member of the Committee, and Mr. A. M. J. Cochran was appointed in his place.

The Committee retiring, calls were made for Mr. Thomas A. Davis.

Mr. Davis spoke of the object of the meeting, saying it was not a time for speech-making, but rather the time for action—a time for the patriots of the state to register their solemn protest against the frauds that have been and are now being committed against the election franchises. It was not the purpose, in such a gathering, to denounce Goebel. If Mr. Goebel had been fairly elected, even by the majority of one vote, he should be duly inaugurated Governor of Kentucky. But if General Taylor had been voted the honor, by even so small a majority, the office should be declared his, and all who have a pride in the Commonwealth will see that a fair count is secured. This is a time when Kentucky is interested in the outcome.

"There are in Kentucky some 2,000 Precincts with two-thirds if not three-fourths of the election officers appointed in the interest of Mr. Goebel. At the close of the polls on the 7th of November," said Mr. Davis, "Mr. Goebel's own election officers declared the result of the election, and it showed that a large majority of the voters of Kentucky had not chosen him for Governor, but had chosen General Taylor for that office. We are here today, not as Democrats, not as Republicans, but as Kentuckians, to protest against the reversal of that verdict by men who have the selfish purpose of securing an office at Frankfort."

Fairness is all that is asked. The time has come for cool, deliberate counsel, and it was believed the Committee trusted to prepare the resolutions would voice the sentiments of every honest man in the state.

Mr. Davis was repeatedly interrupted by party applause, giving evidence that the people, as the facts were brought out, were at last awakened and meant action.

The Committee returning, the following resolutions were read by Mr. Davis and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, According to the returns from the election held in this state November 7th, 1899, it appears that the Republican state ticket, headed by William S. Taylor, was elected, and there is reason to apprehend that there is a movement on foot to reverse the result by unlawful means; therefore, be it resolved by this meeting of the citizens of Mason county—

First—That it comes in bad grace from Mr.
William Goebel and his associates on the Democratic state ticket, so far as they are acting in concert with him, and in utter disregard of the quiet and good order of the state, for them, after they have been defeated at an election held under a law of his concoction, and by officers indirectly of his own choosing, in every Precinct in the state, not to acquiesce in the result of that election as shown by the returns of those officers, but to seek to overturn it.

Second—That the right of suffrage, which involves a free ballot and fair count, and acquiescence by all concerned in the result as thus ascertained, is our inalienable right as freemen—that upon its preservation depends our political liberty, and that to its maintenance every good citizen is bound by his sacred honor and allegiance to the state, and in its defense should peril his life if necessary.

Third—That we view with alarm and indignation the persistent and continual efforts of those who have been defeated at the polls to deprive their successful opponents of their positions by wrongful counting, trivial technicities and fraud. We denounce all such persons, and their knowing and willful aiders and abettors, as enemies to the state, and we pledge ourselves to resist their wicked purposes and to defeat their pernicious ends by all lawful means in our power, and call upon all good citizens, irrespective of party, to do likewise.

Fourth—That the foregoing resolutions imply no criticism whatever upon the action of any honest Board of Commissioners or officers of election.

A. M. J. COCHRAN,
THOMAS E. PICKETT,
JOHN B. HOLTON,
J. H. GRIGSBY,
HENRY ORT.

After requesting the publication of these resolutions the meeting adjourned.

ROASTS GOEBEL.

Democratic Paper Sizes Up the Vote Thief in Good Shape.

STRONG APPEAL FOR FAIRNESS

The Washington Post, Democratic independent, but which has been advocating Blackburn and the regular ticket in Kentucky, says under the caption of "The Infamy in Kentucky":

"It begins to appear that the Kentucky campaign, which opened with the infamous nomination of Goebel by the Democrats, is destined to close with the even deeper infamy of Goebel's election by fraud. The Louisville Courier-Journal, which has become the exponent, if not the authorized organ, of Goebellism and its methods, is now telling us under triumphant headlines and with honest pride how the pure-minded Democratic officials throughout the state are steadily robbing Taylor of his vote, and as steadily overcoming by the foulest and most insolent expedients the Republicans' legitimate majority. What was begun on the scale of petit larceny—the theft of isolated ballot boxes and the disqualification of small groups of voters here and there—has reached the proportions of wholesale plunder and spoliation.

The Goebel officials have boldly abandoned the furtive, piecemeal system, and are now stealing by votes instead of by Precincts.
The most voracious and arrogant carpetbagger that went South in the reconstruction times to ravage states and loot their treasuries would turn in his grave today—turn with envy and regret—if he could know what a sunglinting journeyman he was compared with this Kentucky adept.

"We risk nothing in the assertion that in the history of American elections there has been no spectacle more disgraceful and abhorrent than that now presented by the Kentucky Democracy. That the Republican candidate has been elected by a clear majority is beyond all question. That the election officials, aided by Democratic Courts, are gradually but surely extinguishing this majority is patent to the dullest understanding. It is a spectacle fraught with humiliation and shame; and what makes it especially odious in the eyes of decent men is the fact that Goebel, who devised the machinery of fraud, is to be the beneficiary of its operation.

"The disgust and anger generated by these proceedings include the entire country.
Honest Democrats—honest men—all who care for justice, honor and self-respect—resent, denounce and brand them. It is a safe prediction that the Democratic party, not only in Kentucky, but in the Nation at large, will not be the victim of such a victory of villainy.
The installation of Goebel through the detestable methods we have described will give Kentucky to the Republican party for years to come. No honorable man can possibly condone those methods or permit himself to be identified with them. The struggle is no longer between Republicanism and Democracy. It is between righteousness and crime."

Women's Suits!

Hardly a week goes by but we add to our stock of Women's Tailored Suits—yet judging by what shoppers tell us we might let a month go by without adding anything and still have the most complete stock in town. We do not buy a great quantity of a kind, only enough to be sure of fitting you, for you like even a jacket suit to be different from other people. All the following are man tailored—that is, men can press more heavily on the iron, sponge the fabric more evenly and work the suits into better shape. We mention a few: $10 Suits in Oxford, Brown and Blue Mixture Double-breasted refter coat, habit back skirt. Elaborately trimmed with stitching in man tailor fashion.
$15 Suits in Navy Blue and Black Cheviot Serge, double-breasted coat, velvet collar, taffeta lining.
$18 Suits in handsome Mixed Cheviot, dip front, scalloped coat, velvet collar, habit-back skirt, heavy changeable taffeta lining.
